Peers recognize Jacques Redmond as Employee of Quarter

EAGLE LAKE, Maine – Jacques Redmond is Northern Maine General’s Employee of the Quarter. In honor of his achievements, the NMG Employee Relations Council awarded $100 to Redmond, a Direct Support Professional for the nonprofit organization’s Philip Blanchette Residential home, which provides services to individuals with brain injuries.

Every quarter, an employee is nominated by his or her peers for outstanding service. The program recognizes the efforts of employees who have exceeded their job duties and supported their divisions and peers. The recognition focuses on

- Attitude and inspiration;
- Collaboration and positive cooperation; and
- Enthusiasm and support for NMG’s mission.

“Redmond offers compassion, thoughtfulness, and support where it is needed,” wrote one of his peers. “He brings ideas, strategies, and support to consumers, staff, and management.”

Another colleague stated that Redmond “continues to brainstorm and test out new ideas to get more consumers involved and participating in their rehabilitation,” also adding, “the level of research and thinking outside the box has made a huge difference, and is very much appreciated.”

Others nominated included Claire L’Italien in Home & Community Supports, Beatrice Nadeau in Case Management, and Richard Parent in Home & Community Supports.

Northern Maine General is a nonprofit social services organization serving Aroostook County, with business offices in Eagle Lake and Caribou. Founded in 1907, NMG provides long-term care, rehabilitation, home and community supports, behavioral health services, target case management, and consultation services and resources. Contracted services include subsidized apartments.
