Peers laud Lucy Dube as Employee of the Quarter

EAGLE LAKE, Maine (May 3, 2021) – Lucy Dube has earned Northern Maine General’s Employee of the Quarter designation. In honor of her achievements, NMG’s Employee Relations Council awarded $100 to Dube on Friday. Dube – a Resident Liaison for the nonprofit organization’s Franciscan Home, a licensed residential mental health facility - has been with NMG almost 35 years.

Every quarter, an employee is nominated by his or her peers for outstanding service. The program recognizes the efforts of employees who have exceeded their job duties and supported their divisions and peers. The recognition focuses on

- Attitude and inspiration;
- Collaboration and positive cooperation; and
- Enthusiasm and support for NMG’s mission.

“Lucy is always willing to lend a helping hand to assist others,” wrote one of her peers. “She steps up to help out with serving meals, cleaning bedrooms, assisting with Activities of Daily Living, and medication administration, in addition to her own daily tasks.”

“You could not ask for a better employee in terms of accuracy and thoroughness,” another colleague stated. “Dube is relied upon to look over certain documents because of her strength in reviewing details.”
