Peers Highlight Singleton Wilson as Employee of Quarter

EAGLE LAKE & CARIBOU, Maine – Singleton Wilson has earned Northern Maine General’s Employee of the Quarter. In honor of her achievements, the NMG Employee Relations Council awarded $100 to Wilson, who is an Administrative Support staffer for the nonprofit organization’s Caribou site office.

Every quarter, an employee is nominated by his or her peers for outstanding service. The program recognizes the efforts of employees who have exceeded their job duties and supported their divisions and peers. The recognition focuses on

- Attitude and inspiration;
- Collaboration and positive cooperation; and
- Enthusiasm and support for NMG’s mission.

“Singleton works closely with staff in many divisions. She is always there to help and often offers up ideas to streamline job duties,” wrote one of her peers. “Singleton always works with the team in mind.”

Another colleague stated that Wilson “is full of inspiration and encouragement. She communicates professionally, promptly, and keeps the team well informed. Wilson is supportive to her coworkers, to NMG’s clients, and to management across several programs.”

Northern Maine General is a nonprofit social services organization serving Aroostook County, with business offices in Eagle Lake and Caribou. Founded in 1907, NMG provides long-term care, rehabilitation, home and community supports, behavioral health services, target case management, and consultation services and resources. Contracted services include subsidized apartments.
