Lydia Christie named Employee of the Quarter (Q1)

EAGLE LAKE, Maine (May 2, 2024) – Lydia Christie has received Northern Maine General’s Employee of the Quarter designation for outstanding service delivered during Quarter 1 of 2024.

The Employee of the Quarter program recognizes the efforts of employees who have gone beyond their job duties and supported their divisions and peers throughout the quarter. The employee must display the following characteristics: positive attitude and inspiration; collaboration and cooperation; enthusiasm and support for NMG’s mission; and quality.

Employed as a Case Manager for NMG’s Case Management Program, Lydia’s peers wrote:

- ATTITUDE: “At any time of the day, fellow case managers can reach out to her for support and guidance, and she will brainstorm to find them answers,”
- COLLABORATION: “She is always there to bounce ideas and is so knowledgeable in this field,”
- LEADERSHIP: “Shows leadership by helping her coworkers with any questions they have, always putting clients’ needs first, and advocating for clients’ needs,”
- QUALITY: “Always up to date on all her documentation and is thorough in all her work.”

To laud the achievement, the NMG Employee Relations Council recently presented Lydia with a $100 check from the ERC Fund.
