Rene St.Onge named Employee of the Quarter (Q2)

EAGLE LAKE, Maine (May 2, 2024) – Rene St.Onge has received Northern Maine General’s Employee of the Quarter designation for outstanding service delivered during Quarter 2 of 2024.

The Employee of the Quarter program recognizes the efforts of employees who have gone beyond their job duties and supported their divisions and peers throughout the quarter. The employee must display the following characteristics: positive attitude and inspiration; collaboration and cooperation; enthusiasm and support for NMG’s mission; and quality.

Employed as the Dietary/Housekeeping/Laundry Supervisor of Mercy Home, Rene received these supportive comments:

- ATTITUDE: “NMG’s biggest advocate in the community,”
- COLLABORATION: “One example ... Valentine’s Day. Coordinated with Activities (staff) to do heart ravioli for the residents,”
- LEADERSHIP: “Does not matter what issues/concerns are brought to his attention, he jumps on them and addresses it head on,”
- QUALITY: “Food, housekeeping and laundry are some of the most important aspects in a resident’s life ... He quality checks daily, taste tests, and is always willing to speak up when not up to his standard.”

To laud the achievement, the NMG Employee Relations Council recently presented Rene with a $100 check from the ERC Fund.
